Look out for the Knights of Pythias moon-light excursion by Steamer Chicora on Friday evening next, which is to help meet the deficit caused by the wet weather at the recent demonstration. The Chicora leaves the Yonge-street wharf at 8.30 p.m. and 10.30 p.m.

Robt. Thompson, aged 16, was seen in the act of picking John Finney's pocket in a tavern opposite the market, yesterday afternoon. A little later he was arrested by Detective Brown in the market. He is also wanted on a charge of snatching $16 from a farmer named Huston from Norville on the 31st July.

The extensive display of safes made at the Indian and Colonial Exhibition by Messrs. J. & J. Taylor, of this city will never see Canada again. A Bombay dealer with an appreciative eye has purchased the entire consignment, consisting of two car loads, and will take them back to the land of jungles, elephants, and tigers. Nor is this the whole story. The firm is at present working on a second order for the same purchaser. Some idea of the extent of the first sale may be gathered from the fact that the value of one safe alone is $2,000. Messrs. Taylor have, of course, no doubts as to the benefit arising from the London Exhibition, as already inquiries have been received from far Australia.
