The Supply of Men Eager to Go With the Contingent Still Keeps Up—Results of To-day's Medical Inspections.

The persistency with which a large number of men faithfully appear at the Armories seeking a chance to be picked out by Colonel Otter and sent for examination to Lieut.-Col. Nattress, A. M. S., is really remarkable. Many men have been present both morning and afternoon of every day during the last week. Yesterday morning the Colonel sent 50 to the doctor, who worked hard from 10 o'clock until nearly 1. Henceforth Colonel Nattress will be at the Armories only in the forenoon. The choosing of men and swearing in will, however, continue throughout the whole day.

Passed the Doctor.

The following men successfully passed the medical test during the morning:—Herbert Gledhill, 324 Wellesley street; George Johnston, Streetsville; Henry A. Jones, 11 Elizabeth street; James A. Dixon, 242 George street; James E. Graham, Lindsay, Ont.; Ernest Scott, 213 Crawford street; John T. Hughes, 30 Fenning street; Clarence Chandler, 591 Parliament street; Homer J. Beatty, 17 Blecker street; Stephen Hawkins, Hastings, Ont.; James Riley, 250 Jarvis street; Henry A. Meek, 567 King street west.

A dozen men were also sworn in in the afternoon, and will likely leave town with the next batch, which goes on Wednesday night. Their names are as follows:—Nicholas Davey, 728 Euclid avenue; R.M. Wilson, 250 McCaul street; Joseph Humphries, 157 Ontario street; George P. Patterson, 327 Church street; Wm. C. Couch, 27 Homewood avenue; R. McMaster, Toronto; Hamilton Hill; W.G.W. Wilson, Toronto; Wm. O'Brien, 16 Manning avenue; Clarence Simpson, 30 Hazelton avenue; J. F. Green, C Battery, St. Catharines, and R. Mulcahey, Toronto.
