
DR. WILLIAM E. MASON

Physician Practiced 28 Years in Toronto

Dr. William Edward Mason, 70, who had practiced medicine in Toronto for 28 years, died Tuesday at his home, 24 St. Clair Ave. E. Born in Toronto, he was the son of Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Mason. He was a graduate of Trinity Medical College and at one time practiced in PARRY SOUND. For many years he was medical examiner with the Aetna Life Insurance Co. He was a member of Algonquin Lodge, A.F. and A.M. Surviving are his widow, Bertha Adams Mason, two sons, Jack, overseas on active service, and George, with the R.C.N.V.R., a daughter, Dorothy, and two sisters, Mrs. A. RAILTON of Fonthill and Mrs. M. Guest of Fredonia, N.Y.

Edward Golding

Retired stationary engineer, Edward Golding, 81, employed for many years by the Toronto City Hall, died yesterday at his home, 97 Roselawn Ave. Born in Kent, Eng., Mr. Golding came to Canada nearly 40 years ago, and was associated with the Town Hall, North Toronto, joining the staff of the City Hall when North Toronto was merged with the city. He was a member of the Sons of England. Surviving are his widow, Amy Frances Arthrell Golding; two sons, William C. and Albert Edward, and a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Watson, all of Toronto.
