

HEBREW LADIES' CLUB ASSOCIATED WITH MEN

Liberal Group Headed by Mrs. A. Applebaum

At an organization meeting held at the club rooms of the Hebrew Liberal Club, 699 Spadina Avenue, there was formed a Hebrew Ladies' Auxiliary. Mr. Harry Lewis, Chairman of the Hebrew Liberal Club, presided, Mr. Samuel Factor, K.C., M.P.; Mr. Joe Harris, Mr. Frank Grover, Mr. Meyer Feldt, Mr. J. Mingarten and Mr. Harry Cowan each spoke.

Mrs. Julius Weil urged a large membership so that the club would be able to promote Liberalism and assist worthy causes. Mrs. A. Applebaum was chosen Convener of the Organization Committee, Mrs. B. Medline as Secretary. To assist them are Mesdames F. Kay, S. Shrott, L. Kirshenblott, L. Lewis, S. Mingarten, M. Shapiro, R. Lamport, M. Marcus and S. Applebaum. Later members of the Hebrew Liberal Club served refreshments.

Margaret Ellen McNeil Bride of J. P. Junkin

On April 30, at the parsonage of Cambridge Street United Church, Lindsay, when Margaret Ellen, eldest daughter of Mrs. McNeil and the late Fred McNeil of Red Rock, became the bride of John Percy Junkin of Bobcaygeon, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Junkin. Rev. J. J. Black officiated and the attendants were Miss G. Bullock and Mr. G. Hill of Peterborough.

The bride dressed in American blue triple chiffon with matching accessories was attended by a bridesmaid in a tailored suit of navy blue.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party motored to the home of the bride's mother at Red Rock, where supper was served. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Junkin will reside at Bobcaygeon.
