

MRS. S. L. NASH.

Wellington, Aug. 13.—(Special.)—Mrs. Nash, widow of Dr. Samuel L. Nash of Bath, Ont., and a daughter of Clo:anah Young and Caleb Williams, United Empire Loyalist settlers in Prince Edward County, has passed away. She was born Sept. 26, 1833, and on Aug. 8, 1857, was married to Samuel L. Nash. From this union there were twelve children, eight of whom survive, six daughters and two sons, also ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Mrs. Nash was a Methodist and was a faithful worker in church organizations. She was a charter and life member of the Women's Missionary Society and an active worker in the W.C.T.U. Her lively interest in all affairs of the community was maintained to the last. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Melvin Taylor at her late residence, and interment was at Cataract Cemetery, Kingston.

MRS. FRANK HILLOCK.

Mrs. Frank Hillock, 271 Dundas Crescent, widow of Frank Hillock, lumber dealer, died early Sunday morning, after an illness of three weeks. She was in her eighty-seventh year, and had lived at the above address for sixty-three years. Mrs. Hillock was a lifelong member of Berkeley United Church, in which she took a very active interest. Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. T. W. Coulan and Mrs. W. M. Bowman; also five sons, John F., Christopher W., William H., Frank S. and George S. Hillock. She is also survived by nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
